MISSOURI GUIDELINES FOR DRUG/ALCOHOL COLLECTIONS

Ten Principles of a Good Testing Program¹

1. Design an effective drug detection program, place the policies and procedures into written form (drug court manual) and communicate the details of the drug detection program to the court staff and clients alike.
2. Develop a client contract that clearly enumerates the responsibilities and expectations associated with the court's drug detection program.
3. Select a drug-testing specimen and testing methodology that provides results that are scientifically valid, forensically defensible and therapeutically beneficial.
4. Ensure that the sample-collection process supports effective abstinence monitoring practices including random, unannounced selection of clients for sample collection and the use of witnessed/direct observation sample-collection procedures.
5. Confirm all positive screening results using alternative testing methods unless participant acknowledges use.
6. Determining the creatinine concentrations of all urine samples and sanction for creatinine levels that indicate tampering.
7. Eliminate the use of urine levels for the interpretation of client drug-use behavior. A drug test is either positive (drug presence is as or above the cutoff concentration) or negative (none detected; drug level is below the cutoff concentration).
8. Establish drug-testing results interpretation guidelines that have a sound scientific foundation and that meet a strong evidentiary standard.
9. In response to drug-testing result interpretation guidelines that have a sound scientific foundation and that meet a strong evidentiary standard.
10. Understand that drug detection represents only a single supervision strategy in an overall abstinence monitoring program.
