ANSWER TO MOTION TO MODIFY CHILD CUSTODY AND SUPPORT FORMS

(These forms shall be used by a person responding to Motion to Modify Child Custody and Support.)

Introduction

These forms are available to you at no cost on the Representing Yourself website. Some courts may provide paper copies of these forms for a fee. Only a lawyer may charge you a fee for preparing these forms. You are required to complete the Litigant Awareness Program on selfrepresent.mo.gov before preparing these forms. Your local court may also have other educational programs available to help you in the preparation of these forms.

General Information about Forms

The forms must be downloaded with Adobe Acrobat Reader or Adobe Acrobat DC to save the information you enter. Adobe Acrobat Reader DC is available for free from the Adobe website. Save the forms before you begin entering information. After you have filled in the forms on your computer, save the information and print the forms to file them with the court.

If you are working on a public computer, don't save your personal information on the public computer. Use a USB memory stick or other removable device.

The forms listed below are interactive. If you fill in the forms on your computer, some of the information you enter on one line may automatically transfer to another line. The forms also contain bookmarks that help you to navigate through the forms. In addition, there are "links" embedded in the forms. These links are usually blue and can take you to a related location in the forms or to a related website.

The person who filed the original petition in the case you want to change is the Petitioner. The person who was listed as the Respondent in the original petition in the case you want to change is still the Respondent in the Motion to Modify.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Answer to Motion to Modify Child Custody and Support \(Form CAFC111-R\)

This is the first form you should complete. You will complete this form in response to Motion to Modify Child Custody and Support. By signing this form, you agree to allow the court to decide your case. You may use this form to agree or disagree with statements in the other parent's Motion.

2. Parenting Plan \(Form CAFC501\)

There are two parts to this form, Part A and Part B. Part A deals with custody issues of the children, and Part B deals with support issues of the children.

If you have different custody or support arrangements for some of the children, you must complete a separate Parenting Plan for each set of children.

If the parents agree on the Parenting Plan, you may both sign and file one plan. This Parenting Plan can then be introduced into evidence at your hearing for the court to approve.

3. Statement of Income and Expenses \(For use in Modification Cases\) \(Form CAFC150\)

This form requires you to list income and expenses for both you and the other parent.

4. Statement of Property and Debt \(For use in Modification Cases\) \(Form CAFC140\)

This form requires you to list your property and debt.

What do I need to do?

1. Complete the Litigant Awareness Program on selfrepresent.mo.gov. Upon completion, print your Certificate of completion of the Litigant Awareness Program.
2. Completely and fully fill out the four forms listed above in the Table of Contents.
3. File the following original, signed forms with the court. You should file the forms in the same circuit court where the original Judgment was entered.
  - Answer to Motion to Modify Child Custody and Support
  - Statement of Income and Expenses (For use in Modification Cases)
  - Statement of Property and Debt (For use in Modification Cases)
  - Certificate of completion of Litigant Awareness Program

If the other parent has hired an attorney for this case, you must send a copy of these forms to his or her attorney.

4. You should also keep a copy of these forms for your records.
5. You should check with the court clerk where you are filing to see if additional forms are required.
