

In the Missouri Court of Appeals Eastern District

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

During the COVID-19 pandemic, in-person oral arguments will be cancelled and cases deemed submitted on the briefs. The Court will provide instructions to affected parties or parties' counsel about particular cases that were previously scheduled for oral argument.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, effective immediately, and until further order of this Court, Local Rule 390 regarding requests for oral argument is hereby suspended. Parties will continue to receive letters advising them that they may request oral argument, but any determination of whether oral argument is necessary will be decided by this Court. This Court also reserves the right to conduct oral argument by alternative means.

SO ORDERED.
