I have tried (as first chair) many jury and bench trials over my career. Those cases include personal injury cases (i.e. automobile crashes; premises liability; product liability) and business disputes (i.e. breach of contract; fraud; trade secrets; Uniform Commercial Code; civil conspiracy; shareholders dispute). I tried one divorce case. I have represented many plaintiffs and defendants, both individuals and businesses. Furthermore, I have handled many significant cases that settled on the eve of, or morning of, or during, trial. Moreover, in the past several years, these significant cases do not go to trial as often, due to the high stakes/risks, and thus, they often settle. Below is a sample of cases that went to trial.

20. Set forth any additional information that demonstrates the quality of your legal work or which you believe to be relevant.

I was born in University City and grew up in Florissant and Ballwin in a home of ten. I am the oldest of six children, and in addition to my mother and father, my mother's only sister, who was a single mother, and her son, lived with our family for most of my life. My father served the people of St. Louis County for many years as a circuit judge. My mother did not attend college. Because of the size of my family, I had to pay for virtually all of my college education and all of my law school education.

Public service is part of the values that we were taught. I have served on the boards of many not-for-profit organizations. I had the honor of serving as President of The Missouri Bar. I have tried cases, both jury and bench trials, in the courts of Missouri and four other states. I believe the depth of my legal experience, and my experience working with people of all walks of life throughout my working career, gives me the potential to be an excellent judge for the people of St. Louis County. I also believe that I could serve as a resource for other judges on the County Bench who did not have an extensive civil litigation practice. I would be honored to serve the people of the County where I have lived my entire life.
