RULE 6. ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES, CASES AND TRANSFER OF CASES

Rule 6.1 Assignment to Associate Circuit Judges

The associate circuit judges will hear those cases and matters as are set forth in Rules 1.3, 2.2 through 2.2.5, 6.1.2, and those cases certified to the circuit division (Division I) under Rule 6.3.

Further, in Howell County, when a case has been certified to the circuit division under Rule 6.4, any such case is, by this rule, assigned to the other associate judge of Howell County who did not hear the case originally and, also, the same provision is made in cases where there has been a disqualification of an associate circuit judge as provided in Rule 6.5.

An exception to the assignments under this rule is when a petition is filed by the Juvenile Officer to terminate juvenile proceedings and certify the juvenile to be tried as an adult for a felony. In such case, the petition will be heard and determined by the judge of Division I.

This Rule shall not preclude some other judge from hearing any of these cases upon proper assignment.

6.1.1 Circuit Division Cases Which Associate Circuit Judge May Hear When Circuit Judge is Absent From the County.

When the circuit judge is absent from the county, each associate circuit judge within the county for which he is an associate circuit judge may, upon request by the parties not in default, hear and determine the following classes of cases on file in the circuit division:

- (2) Uncontested actions involving the title to real estate;
- (3) In Carter, Oregon, and Shannon Counties, proceedings for change of name, hardship driver's license, and appeals from denial of a driver's or chauffeur's license.

In any such case heard and determined by the associate circuit judge, the court's records or minutes shall reflect that the circuit judge was absent from the county and that the party or parties not in default requested the associate circuit judge to hear and determine the case.

6.1.2 Other Circuit Division Cases Which May Be Heard by Associate Circuit Judge.

Each associate circuit judge within the county for which he is an associate circuit judge may hear and determine any civil case if a written consent to such hearing is executed by all parties to the case, either personally or by counsel, and is filed of record.

6.1.3 Disposition by Plea or Other Non-contested Basis.

For the purpose of disposition by plea or other non-contested basis, and only with the consent of the judge and all parties on the record, associate circuit judges of the 37th Judicial Circuit before whom preliminary examinations were waived are hereby assigned to said cases upon the filing of the felony information in the same cause in circuit division.

6.1.4 Special Assignment.

Whenever an associate circuit judge is assigned to hear a circuit division case, he shall follow the practice and procedures applicable before circuit judges except that a record of the proceedings shall be preserved as provided in Subsection 2 of Section 512.180, RSMo.

6.1.5 Designations of Assignments.

The designations of assignments of classes of cases by other rule herein to the various associate courts is subject to supervising assignment authority of the presiding judge and to any other statutes or rules which allow any judge of the circuit court to hear certain cases.

6.1.6 Disposition by Plea or Other Non-contested Basis.

For the purpose of disposition by pleas or other non-contested basis, and only with the consent of the judge and all parties on the record, associate circuit judges of Division II and III of Howell County of the 37th Judicial Circuit may hear and determine cases assigned to the other associate circuit judge if he is absent or unavailable.

In all cases where child custody is an issue and the court has appointed an attorney for any child or for either parent, the attorney may be awarded a reasonable fee for such services to be set by the court. The court in its discretion may award such fees as a judgment to be paid by any party to the proceedings, or from public funds as allowed by law. Such an award of fees shall constitute a final judgment in favor of the attorney. In any case in which attorney fees are to be paid from local public funds, the attorney shall file with the court, in the calendar year in which services are provided, a written request for fees, including as an attachment an itemization of services performed in that calendar year.  - b. There is no marital property to be divided or debts to be apportioned, or the parties have entered into a written settlement agreement providing for the division of their marital property and apportionment of marital debts; and,
 - c. There are no minor children of the parties, or the mother is not pregnant and the parties have entered into a written parenting plan which complies with statutory requirements and a Form 14 accurately reflecting the party's income and the child support amount obligation resulting therefrom;

(B) Affidavit—Filing

If one party desires to submit the matter for entry of final orders upon affidavit, the submitting party shall file an affidavit setting forth sworn testimony showing the court's jurisdiction and containing factual averments sufficient to support the relief requested, together with a copy of a proposed judgment or order; and a copy of any written settlement agreement and any other supporting evidence. The filing of such an affidavit shall not be deemed to shorten any statutory waiting period required for the entry of a judgment of dissolution of marriage or legal separation.

(C) Hearing Required—When

The court shall not be bound to enter any judgment or order upon affidavit(s) of either or both parties, but may, on its own motion, require that a formal hearing be held to determine any or all issues presented by the pleadings.

(D) Affidavit Docket

The circuit clerk may establish an affidavit docket for entry of judgments submitted by affidavit. The times and dates of said docket shall be set by the assigned judge from time to time. So long as the requirements of Subsection A have been met, a matter may be submitted by affidavit at any time or, upon motion of either party, on a date certain. Upon the setting of a case on a specific affidavit docket for entry of final order, if all documents necessary for entry of the judgment are not submitted to the court on said date, absent a showing of good cause, the case shall be set for trial by counsel for the parties, or if one or both counsel fail to appear, by the court.
